

WHO & WHAT'S NEW FOR 2015-2016

U.S. Women's Ski Jumping: Sarah Hendrickson placed 3rd in the World Cup Competitions in Ljubno, Slovenia over Valentine's weekend. "I am really, really happy with today," said Hendrickson. "I can't even begin to explain how much weight has been lifted off my shoulders. I needed this for myself—the confidence and contentment with all the hard work that I have put in. It's been a long road to get to this place today, and I can only smile." Sarah's teammates, Nita Englund, Tara Geraghty-Moats and Abby Hughes placed in the top twenty.

Unprecedented Attendance at 2015 FIS World Ski Championships: A successful World Championships, that exceeded goals and expectations set by the Organizing Committee, took place from February 2-15, 2015 in Vail and Beaver Creek this year. Between racing in Beaver Creek by day and Medals Ceremonies and concerts in Vail by night, the Vail Valley welcomed more than 200,000 spectators during the two weeks of the 2015 World Championships. Vail Valley's hometown sweetheart Mikaela Shiffrin took first place for a fitting Valentine's Day finish at Red Tail Stadium.

FAR WEST RECOGNITION AWARDS

CHARITY AND COMMUNITY SERVICE RECOGNITION: DEADLINE: March 20, 2015

RECOGNITION: The 1st Place Club will receive a $200 donation and the 2nd Place Club a $50 donation for the charity of their choice. The 1st Place Council will receive a $100 donation.

DESCRIPTION: The intent of this recognition program is to encourage charity and community service involvement in all our FWSA councils and clubs and to recognize a club or council for its outstanding financial and/or volunteer support to one or more charitable organizations. All clubs and councils that apply will be recognized at the FWSA Convention. Three clubs and one council will be selected and notified by April 15. They will then prepare a picture display board to be presented at Convention.

SAFETY PERSON OF THE YEAR AWARD: DEADLINE: March 20, 2015

RECOGNITION: New sponsors this year, Telluride Ski Resort and Mountain Lodge, Telluride have donated a 5-night ski package for two with lodging, 4-day lift tickets, and 4-day rentals.

DESCRIPTION: The FWSA is a proponent of safety in skiing and snowboarding. Every year we hear about tragic deaths and injuries that happen during our favorite winter activities that remind us of the great importance of safety. We have a number of ways in which we promote safety and one of our more viable ways is through the Safety Award. The award is for the individual, within the association, that has done the most to promote safety through a number of criteria. These include articles on slope safety, and other ways to raise safety consciousness. The link to detailed information and entry form is: <http://fwsa.org/MemberCorner/Programs/program-safety.html>

WESTERN SKI HERITAGE AWARD: DEADLINE: March 20, 2015

RECOGNITION: Since 2000, Steamboat Ski & Resort Corporation has donated a 5-night ski package for two with lodging, lift tickets, rentals, on-mountain tour, half-day lessons and a lunch at Ragnar's Restaurant.

DESCRIPTION: The Far West Western Ski Heritage program annually recognizes the best effort in the prior year that communicates the contributions of snowsports to the community at large. The purpose of the Far West Western Ski Heritage program is to raise the awareness of snowsports participants and non-participants alike of the contributions made by individuals, groups and companies to all aspects of snowsports – competitive as well as that of outdoor winter recreation and fitness. A parallel purpose is to convey the positive role snowsports has had in its contributions to the communities in the West. It recognizes outstanding effort in the area of snowsports history to find, preserve, document and share the history of snowsports in the West. The Award is open to an individual or a group leader (it is not restricted to Far West membership) and can be self-nominated or nominated by a club or club member. Materials and history programs will be evaluated against the objectives of the program by individuals selected for their knowledge of the history of Western snowsports and that of the Association. ENVIRONMENT AWARD: DEADLINE: March 20, 2015

RECOGNITION: New this year! Sponsors, Aspen Skiing Company and Snowmass Tourism, The Gant and Crestwood Condominiums have donated a 5-night ski package for two with lodging, lift tickets, rentals, and a full-day group lesson.

DESCRIPTION: The Environment Award is designed to encourage good stewardship of our environment. We want to inspire and reward creative efforts to conserve and protect our environment. This award should recognize a special action that the applicant took, or something he or she put in place that made a difference. Some areas to consider are: Volunteering at the community level, particularly in a leadership role; conducting or arranging for an environmental event (s) for the club, council, or public; writing a series of columns regarding environmental conservation, education or protection in your ski club or ski club council newsletter; or being pro-active in environmental protection.

FAR WEST HISTORICAL RECOGNITION PROGRAM: DEADLINE: March 20, 2015

RECOGNITION: Certificate suitable for framing.

DESCRIPTION: The FWSA launched the Historical Recognition Program in 2008 to develop club, league and council histories. The objective of the annual program is to capture important information about skiing from the skier's perspective and especially that of the club skier. Selection for the award is based on digital (preferable) or mailed presentation of club or council history according to a set of weighted criteria and judged by knowledgeable ski historians. The History Recognition is not for outstanding club or council, although it is anticipated that material may be common to both types of presentations. Think of these histories as museum or library reference resources. The link to detailed information and entry form is: <http://fwsa.org/MemberCorner/Programs/program-historical.html>
